

Join us for CHILD DEVELOPMENT DAYS

March 13th and 14th

Sponsored by the Clinton Community School District

Join us for an opportunity to gather information about your child's development as well as free resources for parents.

Your child will play with qualified Clinton Community School District staff while we gather information about your child's development, to share with you. You can browse resources about our community, parenting, and child development. Your child will get a goody bag to take home as well!
