Head Varsity Football Coach

The Clinton Community School District has an opening for a Head Varsity Football Coach beginning with the fall 2018 season. The Head Varsity Football Coach has the overall responsibility for the organization, coordination, management, and coaching of the entire high school football program. This includes all facets of advancing football in the community of Clinton. The right candidate will provide instruction, structure, and motivation to student-athletes in practice and during games resulting in improvement of skills, techniques, performance, competitiveness, and teamwork. The head football coach will collaborate with all stakeholders in the program to advance the mission of the Clinton Community School District and the Clinton Athletic Core Covenants: Character, Commitment, Competition, & Community. Applications will be accepted via WECAN ID#24828 or by emailing a letter of interest, resume, three letters of recommendation and a listing of references to Athletic Director, Mr. Jeff Spiwak at: jespiwak@clintonwis.com. This position will remain open until filled.
